Slightly Off Grain by Carol Wagner

Stitches from the Heart

For me, quilting is a constant state of celebration. As quilters, we are never bored, never without something exciting to do; as a result never without abundant blessings. We are creators, involved in the joyful process of making their world a more beautiful place to live. It is often hard for me to imagine how tedious life would be without the gift of quilting which gives me so much joy. It is also great fun to imagine how different the world might be if everyone had the warmth and love of a quilt to wrap themselves up in. How lucky we are to have and be able to share our blessings.

Getting to Know You!

Dreams of sleeping under a magnificent crazy quilt when she was a child have stayed with Elizabeth Huntley all her life. Unfortunately, the quilt was lost in a move when she was eleven years old, but crazy quilts have intrigued her ever since. The recent lecture series that Judith Montana gave really held an interest for her. She enjoys making collage vests and jackets, and feels now, after taking Judith's class, that she will embellish them even more.

Elizabeth and her husband, Bill, live in Minnetonka. They have 3 sons and one daughter and have 2 grandchildren. Elizabeth was formerly a kindergarten-primary teacher, and now is a part-time librarian. If there are spare moments, you may find her sewing, designing, reading, enjoying music or cooking.

Her interest and skill in sewing and quilting has turned into a business for her. Elizabeth loves fabrics & working with them, but never dreamed it would turn into the business that is. She never intended to sell the things she makes, but was encouraged by her artist daughter, Carol, who said, "Hey mom, you can always make another one!" That's her feeling now, and that's what she does! If someone wants to buy what she makes, she can make another one. She has made and sold over 120 vests and jackets, and countless pillows. Elizabeth did a presentations on "Quilted Clothing" for an MQ Meeting a while ago.

Elizabeth has always sewed and enjoyed patchwork. While in her teens, when she tried doing it on her own. She took her first quilting class in 1977 at the "Cotton Shoppe". She has taught classes in crazy patch quilting, and quilted clothing, as well as beginning quilting, needlepoint and crewel embroidery in Eden Prairie and Richfield. She was given a special plague for adapting a class for hearing impaired.

Presently, Elizabeth is a part of the Wayzata Crazy Quilters and West Area Quilters as well as being a MQ Member. "I appreciate all these groups have taught me, and have done for me. They have inspired me, helped me and taught me not only about quilting, but people and life in general. They really support you and encourage your endeavors. I think every quilter wants to improve - the more time and effort your put into it, the better your work will be! I hesitate to enter competitions, because what satisfies and pleases me might not please a judge."

She feels like her "best work" is yet to come!

Minnesota Quilters will be co-sponsoring the upcoming Quilting programs on Channel 2.

Starting November 27, 2:00 - 2:30 p.m., will be Strip Quilting Projects by Kay Wood. After the completion of this series, in the same time space, Quilt in a Day with Eleanor Burns and Quilting I & Quilting II with Penny McMorris will be shown.

Snowflake Days Are Coming....

Snowflake Days Quilt Show will be Feb. 1—Feb. 10, 1991 this year. Mark your calendars and start your quilt! Size is miniature - up to 24 x 36. Entry form will be in Dec. Newsletter

“Twas the night before Christmas, and all through the house, not a creature was stirring, except a wee mouse and Mama in her kerchief, still stitching away to finish a quilt for the very next day.

“I've done one for Steve and one for sweet Sue. There's one for young Paul and my Sarah, too. If only I finish this last one tonight, little Mary will surely cry with delight!”

Then out on the lawn there arose such a clatter, she jumped from her chair to see what was the matter.

“Now what's all that noise?” she thought with a frown, “I do hope the old chimney's not falling down!”

She peered out the window and what did appear.

but a miniature sleigh and eight tiny reindeer - With a little spry driver, so lively and quick, she knew it certainly was not old Saint Nick!

And in a twinkling she heard on the roof the prancing and pawing of each little hoof.

Then down the chimney He came, dressed all in red.

She thought she was dreaming and still in her bed!

He was clad all in fur from his head to his foot and he called out to her “You should clean out that soot!”

“Clean out that soot? No time to sew? Young man, you're crazy - now go, go GO! I must finish this quilt before the morning light. I've been sewing all day and most of the night.”

He danced as he worked, a right jolly old elf, and she laughed as she watched him, in spite of herself.

Then he filled all the stockings from his patchwork sack. It was stuffed to the brim and hung on his back.

He gave a quick nod and when he was through, smiling at her, up the chimney he flew.

Dazed, she wondered if that really might be...

“No,” she murmured, “my eyes are playing tricks on me.”

And grimly she put needle to cloth once again.

“Next year, truly, on January first I'll begin, no more sewing and quilting on the very last night.

These weird dreams are too much.”

The she turned out the light

“Yes, next year I'll be organized. I'll be done on time.”

("Ho, ho," chortled Santa, “Seems I've heard that line.")

Now her quilts were all wrapped and under the tree;

Of course, not all were complete - it just couldn’t be.

But tucked into two boxes were notes with this line:

“To be finished after Christmas: Mom ran out of time!”

And Santa was heard to exclaim as he drove out of sight,

“Merry Christmas to all - and happy quilting each night!”

Attention:
Quilting Shops,
Quilting Events Chairpersons
Quilting Guilds

Beginning December 1, 1990 a new information concept is being offered to quilters in the continental United States. By dialing 1-900-USA-QUILT (1-900-872-7845) the listener will hear helpful quilting tips and information on quilting shows and workshops listed by state.

This information will cost the caller $2 for the first minute and $1 for each minute thereafter. I will update the message weekly with new quilting tips. I am Sara King, a Minnesota quilting instructor and lecturer. Quilting events will be current.

The show and workshop listings will be offered free as a service to you. Quilt shop announcements (such as holiday open houses, sales, or unfilled classes) and guild meeting announcements will be listed when phone time permits. This will offer visitors to your area an opportunity to know about your guild and shop events. They can find out what is happening in your locality when you have listed your events on 1-900-USA-QUILT.

Items must be submitted at least two weeks in advance of the event to insure inclusion in the message. To send me your information, please use the following outline on a POSTCARD:

Minnesota Quilters:

Lake Superior is known for its November storms and you can see Jack Frost is very busy in the mornings leaving signs that winter will be here soon. But, it hasn’t stopped us from “Making Waves In Duluth.”

Snow is also forming in the air up here in the Northland and all the autumn leaves are down. The only colors right now are in your local fabric stores. They are filled with fabulous fabrics just waiting to be purchased, washed, cut-up, and transformed into wonderful quilts. Then think about showing them in a non-juried show at the College of St. Scholastica in Duluth, June 7,8, 9, 1991.
