Something New-- Just For You!
Have you wanted to go to a quilt show and didn't want to go alone? Does your "group" want to go but there are too many for one car? Do you enjoy a full day of fun with quilters--old and new? If you answered "yes" to any of these questions - we have plans.

Jeannette Root and Janet Schuetze, members of Minnesota Quilters, have been given the o.k. by the Board of Directors to be volunteers to plan one day or more bus trips to shows or quilt related places of interest to Minnesota Quilters. These trips will be non-profit...just charges to cover expenses.

The first trip will be Sept. 21, 1991 to the Autumnfest Quilt Show in Spooner, Wis. The show will feature about 100 quilts and quilted apparel plus vendors. On our way home we plan to stop at a quilt shop.

The bus will hold 47 people so make your reservations as soon as possible. Cancellation of the trip will occur 10 days before the event if we do not fill the bus.

Cost of roundtrip on the bus is $15.00-- make checks payable to Jeannette Root.

There are several restaurants within walking distance of the show for lunch plus a soup, sandwich, dessert menu served at the show. Jobs Daughters are serving a Salad Bar Luncheon with beverage and dessert bars for $3.50 with location near the show.

Date: September 21, 1991
Leave: 8:00 am - place of departure will be announced in Sept. newsletter.
Arrive Home: Approximately 5:00 p.m.

Pattie's Ponderings
After a very busy spring and early summer, I'm now looking forward to the long "Dog Days" of August, with its hot lazy days stretching out in front of me. Time ahead to work on projects that didn't get done ......time to quilt......time to visit museums to look at quilts......time to meander through quilt shops and plan winter projects......time to catch up on the pile of quilting magazines and mail order catalogs......time to take a class or learn a new technique......time to spend with friends stitching and catching up on the news. The joys of leisure time!

Then we're onto busier days ahead with our commitments to the Minnesota State Fair, the American Sewing Guild Expo in St. Paul, the Fall Getaway, and the Fall Lecture Series. After vacations are over, we all have plenty of opportunities to get involved with volunteering a few hours or signing up for a committee. Our organization thrives only because of our many volunteers--just look at the incredible Quilt Show we had in Duluth, planned and staffed by many volunteers.

As you enjoy these last days of summer, take a moment to contemplate the upcoming year. Get involved and meet new friends while having a good time. That's really what the Minnesota Quilters are all about.

Happy Quilting.

Her work has been exhibited at shows throughout the country, and it has been featured in many quilting publications. Joen is a nationally-known teacher and lecturer, and her workshops and lectures have been presented all over the country to guilds and at conferences.

Workshops:

She will teach a 1 1/2 day workshop which will run all day Thursday, October 3, and will continue Friday afternoon the 4th. The hours are Thursday 9 am - 4:30 pm with a lunch break, and Friday 1 pm - 4:30 pm.

On Saturday, October 5, Joen will teach "Creating Scenes through Strip Piecing." This is an all-day workshop for those who wish to create sophisticated scenes through the technique of strip piecing. Color and fabric selection, depth perception, design effects through the use of quilting and specific construction techniques will be a part of the workshop. Workshop fee: $30.00. Hours are Saturday, 9 am - 4:30 pm with a break for lunch.

Lectures:

Thursday evening, October 3rd at 7pm. Joen will give the lecture, "Who Says We Don't Have a Right Side of Our Brain?" Baby Quilts Go to Russia

Baby Quilts made by Minnesota Quilters are now comforting infants and children in Russia.

In June MQ member, Lillian Paradise and her husband, Dick returned to visit friends in the Soviet Union. They took with them a dozen of the ABC quilts that were made by MQ members. Soviet friends of theirs offered to take them to a Children's Hospital, so they could give the quilts to children there.

They were taken to the Rayhas Hospital for Children. It was named, as most Russian Hospitals are, after the name of the founder, Dr. Rayhus. he was the Doctor for Tsar Nicholas II, and was the one who treated his son's hemophilia.

This was the first hospital for children in Europe. The architect who built the hospital was the same person who built the Kirov Theater. The design was good for something like a theater but unfortunately was not very warm or comfortable for a hospital. The ceilings were high, the halls were wide and the rooms very large, plain and dark. The buildings were made of cement and stone and were not carpeted.

Dr. Galina Veniaminov, Hospital Administrator and Dr. Margarita Zelenkevitch took the Paradises on a tour of the hospital. It was a 540 bed hospital and included 6 surgery departments, and even had 12 cribs for premature babies. Children from all over Russia were treated here, rich as well as poor. Because of the "sliding fee scale" the poor did not have to pay.

The children's wards was large with metal beds crowded close together. There were no colored curtains or bedspreads and no bedside stands. What they did have was a caring and competent staff, who knew and loved the patients and earned the love of the patients in return.

After identifying children who should receive a quilt, they asked to have one or two put up on the bare walls of the department. The quilt was the only color in the children's environment.

Lillian and Dick wished as they left that every MQ member could have been there to see the reaction of the recipients when they realized the quilts were theirs. The children and their parents, as well as the hospital staff were overwhelmed at someone who didn't know them could care enough to make and send the quilts to them.

Thanks to all Minnesota Quilters who have donated quilts to the ABC quilt project.

ABC Quilt Project

The Brownies of Troop 226, Maple Grove made this quilt for the ABC Quilt project. There are 12 girls ages 8 and 9 that worked on this project. They were excited to know that a real baby would receive the quilt. The Brownies were thankful to have the opportunity to learn, and feel that they can make a difference. Their efforts are appreciated.
