We Can All Be Winners!

Most of us miss out on life’s big prizes. The Pulitzer, Nobel, Oscar’s, Emmy’s. But we are all eligible for life’s small pleasures. A pat on the back, a kiss behind the ear, a four-pound bass, a full moon, an empty parking space, a crackling fire, a great meal, a glorious sunset, the satisfaction of a quilt that turns out just right, sharing with a special quilting friend.

Don’t fret about coping life’s grand awards. Enjoy its tiny delights, there are plenty for all of us!

Minnesota Quilters Join Festival Atmosphere at Mpls. Convention Center

May 31 and June 1-2, 1991 will see the Minnesota Quilters volunteering to help educate the general public about quilts and quilting in our booth at the Creative Quilting and Fiber Arts Festival section in the Minneapolis Convention Center.

We received an outstanding response to our request to our request for volunteers — just one more indication of the giving and sharing of our members. Our volunteers will work on their own small projects at the information table as will as give instruction to the public on a large quilt in a frame.

As a non-profit organization, we were given free booth space by the trade show organizers. We will not be selling or promoting any commercial goods or services or private businesses. But we will be selling raffle tickets on our Ocean Waves raffle quilt. The quilt will be our backdrop display in the booth.

We encourage all our members to attend the three-day show. Stop by our booth to say “Hello” and maybe put a few stitches in our quilt...and maybe purchase “just one more” chance on our gorgeous raffle quilt!

The Quilt Shop

Windows full of inspiration
I want to do them all
Bell on door jingles invitingly
To the Quilt Shop, gonna have a ball!
Patterns and books - samples and fabric
On tables and shelves, even walls.
How can we choose what we should buy
When that get busy quilting bug calls.
Mysteries of colors indescribable
In vivid paint box collections
Each one smiling, tempting us
From their special assigned sections.

Happy, sad and funny faces
On dolls, Santas and animals too,
Each one looking for a home through a buyer
Beckoning all of us, especially me and you.

Patterns and fabric, plus time to sew
Pleases any quilter as you well know.
I can't decide, I've waited too long
The clocking bell is ringing its song.

As she ushered me out the door, she smiled and said,
"Would you please come back tomorrow?"

Making Waves in Duluth
June 7, 8, 9, 1991

Dear Minnesota Quilters,

The time has come and the Aerial Lift Bridge will rise to greet all who set sail to Duluth Minnesota for the 1991 Minnesota Quilt Conference.

Your classes and lecture schedules have arrived and you will be setting those sails towards the College of St. Scholastica, 1200 Kenwood Ave., Duluth, MN, 218-723-6000. "MAKING WAVES IN DULUTH", volunteers will be ready to greet you when you arrive on campus.

Never been to Duluth before and you are planning on driving into our scenic city? Just stop at any in-town information center if you have any questions about directions. Volunteers will have signs and hot pink ribbons up to help mark the way to St. Scholastica.

Taking the Greyhound Bus or Chartered Bus service and would like to use the city bus service in town call 218-722-7283 for information on the route schedule you might need. Taxi service will also be available.

Flying into Duluth International Airport, cab service should be at the Airport or call Airport Fleetline Taxi, 218-729-6681, or Allied Taxi, 218-722-3311.

Reminder, the small quilt auction is in need of more quilts (maximum size 24" x 36") to auctioned to raise money to further education about quilts and quilt making on Public TV.

How about a donation of a door prize. If you would like to donate a crafty little gift to the door prize committee than they will give them out after every lecture.

Reminder to turn in your raffle ticket money to Connie or Vera at the raffle quilt table before 12:30 p.m., Sunday, June 9.

The weather in Duluth has many moods and can be very pleasant at 98 degrees then drop to an unpleasant 58 degrees. So, when you pack for summer travel remember the climate changes, if we get a North East wind off of Lake Superior.

I hope you all have a safe journey to Duluth and enjoy the conference we have planned for you.

The quilt "Stormy Heart", was made and quilted by Carol Maupins and is her 1st of many more. This quilt will be shown at the 1991 Minnesota Quilt Show, "Making Waves in Duluth."

You are invited to visit the
MINNESOTA QUILT PROJECT DISPLAY
AT "MAKING WAVES IN DULUTH"
JUNE 7-8-9

Join members of the Minnesota Quilt Project Advisory Board Sunday, June 9, at 9:00 a.m. for COFFEE and CONVERSATION about your vision of the end results of the project — What kind of exhibit? What kind of publication?

Remember, volunteers are needed the second Saturday of each month (except June) to help process all the data and pictures collected at Quilt Discovery Days. Most work is clerical plus entering data from forms in computer database, simple for anyone with Lotus experience. Call Judy Briesath (home, 612-429-9060; work, 481-4575) to let her know you are coming. All work must be done at the H. B. Fuller facilities made available to the project at 8 Pinetree, Arden Hills.

Thou Shalt Love Annual Show

We have heard a vicious rumor going around and wish to clear it up here and now. It has actually been said that there are many women throughout this state planning to leave their homes and families totally on their own and journey to Duluth to stay for two days to attend the State Quilting Guild’s Annual Show. The very thought sends chills down my spine. I can just imagine the chaos this drastic move could create. Men and children all over the state on the very verge of starvation, no laundry fairy to pick up dirty and used clothes. What are you doing? Think, think of returning to home on Sunday night - dishes all over the kitchen (too bad they don't equip dishwashers with flashing lights and sirens so that someone besides you can find them, and toilet paper holder that say “please load me” when they are empty). Think of all the dirt tracked in on the kitchen floor without you there to yell “wipe your feet.”

Now if you still really insist on joining the rest of us having a jovial good time (we have practiced at it for years) we have Ten Commandments that will be of inestimable value to you if you follow them to the letter. They are:

1. Thou shalt remove and discard anything from the fridge before leaving, that is so old you are fairly sure it could be lethal to anyone looking for something to eat.
2. Thou shalt control thyself and not mop the kitchen floor before you leave. It would be an exercise in futility.
3. Thou shalt prepare meals ahead in direct proportion as to how many meals he prepared for you before he left for the deer hunt last year.
4. Thou shalt bring all thy hidden money — as there are wonderful vendors at the show.
5. Thou shalt bring a means of sneaking thy fabric into thy house on thy return as we are not responsible for consequences. (Extra suit case, large box with thy friend’s name plainly written on top, etc.)
6. Thou shalt not buy so much fabric that a U-haul is needed to get it home. It should surely be detected and thy quilting detailed.
7. Thou shalt not return home giggling and jolly as it may be deemed thou has just had a wonderful time and thou could be restrained from partaking of such delights at another time.
8. Thou shalt not laugh with thy friends at Meeting too boisterous and loud, 'tis not good as it could become a habit that would be difficult to break and thy husband will surely think thou hast become tainted in thy journey.
9. Thou shalt finish all thy projects started in classes by next year's Annual Show.
10. Thou shalt not call home to check on condition of family while at Meeting. I knew a quilter last year who called home after Annual Show on Sunday, and asked her husband how he got along alone with the kids for 3 days and he said, “Kids, did you leave them here?”

SEE YOU THERE!

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Minnesota Quilter Friends:

As with all good things...they must end.

This year as President has certainly been a busy one for me. I have been extremely proud to hold this office.

I appreciate the tremendous support over the past year from the members of the Board of Directors and the individual members that has been extended to me.

I ask that you continue your support of the new Board of Directors as they take on their new responsibilities. This is a very large organization and it is impossible to please everyone at all times with the decisions made. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact any of the Board Members.

As I move on as Past President I will miss all the contacts with the wonderful quilters. I know everyone always says that — but I really will!!!

Thanks for a great year,

Marge Herrington

Information Wanted
Quilt Shops/Museums

Your opinion is valuable! If you have traveled or lived elsewhere in the USA, and know about quilt shops and museums, your opinions are needed.

If enough information is contributed, a booklet will be printed telling your facts and opinions on any place in the USA that has to do with quilts. This booklet could be invaluable to you when you travel. It’s often difficult to find quilt related places by looking in the yellow pages or travel guides.

Dig through those moments and old vacation brochures, call up your old friends, think, think, think. It will take some work on your part to write down this information, but the result will be worth it. Your ideas are important whether you contribute one item or a dozen.

I love to get mail! Send it to:
Audrey Mead
2655 Kempton Drive
Woodbury, MN 55125

Call 731-3053 if you have questions about this project. Please do not call between 3pm & 7pm on weekdays.

Thanks!
