Charm Round Robins
If you are participating in a round robin, please keep it going. If you have a fabric packet and have decided that you do not want to continue, please send it to Ellen Carter. Anyone wishing to join a round robin, mail a post card to Ellen.

In case you are not aware of what the charm round robin is, it is a fabric exchange of 6" squares of cotton fabric to be used in charm quilts. Your name is placed on a list. If you are beginning the round, send 10 6" squares to the second name on the list. The second person takes only the fabrics he/she likes, adds the same number of his/her squares and passes ten squares on to the next person. This works great if you pass it on within a few days.

Unfortunately, some people have reported getting a package only once and never again. This exchange has been going on for a year. Please, keep it going. It should be getting around the list in a month to six weeks if everyone is conscientious about passing it on quickly.

It really is a lot of fun to get a packet of fabric in the mail, so if you are not participating, sign up today, if you are, dig out that envelope of fabric and pass it on.

Thought Patterns

Each year Minnesota Quilter's show committee goes through the process of determining quilt categories. The very first show listed entrants as "quilts". Later shows listed "quilts" and "wallhangings". Present day shows categorize Amateur "wallhanging", "quilt", Professional "wallhanging", "quilt".

In all but one year, viewers choice ribbons have been presented to the top three voted works in each category, with one best of show ribbon. With exception in 1979 and 1986, ribbons were awarded through a judged process. Judges were chosen from national teachers present at the show. Ribbons were awarded to the top three works in each category, both amateur and professional. A single viewer's choice award was presented each year.

July and August were spent reviewing each show committee file since 1979 with the desire to find a singular Minnesota Quilter's show philosophy. This is what I found - July 13, 1979, "Special Events...Reported that it was decided...to have an "Event" which will be workshops for upgrading skills and also set standards for teaching and judging. The workshops will be held close to the Twin Cities area." November 2, 1979 "It will be a show with a new theme such as applique, star designs, etc. The first years show may have to juried instead of a contest but next year and thereafter there will be a contest." These two statements are as specific as it gets.

Now I want you as a member to do some thinking this month. Let us know how we can best serve you at future shows. Fill out the enclosed survey and mail by September 25, 1992. Results will then be published in the November newsletter.

Our first main issue is separation of Amateur and Professional. Combining A.Q.S. and N.Q.A. show definitions, a professional is someone who either sold quilted items, designed or taught quilting, won a blue ribbon (first place) in 2 or more major competitions, or accepted a monetary prize through quilting. Also a person exhibiting as a professional cannot return to amateur status. An amateur is anyone who does not meet the professional criteria.

My feelings on having M.Q. a judged show are 50/50. I have entered quilts in many judged shows. One judged show gave no critique sheet, which left me with an empty feeling. I had no idea what to improve on in my quilting. The following is a score sheet example from a different judged show entry. It was informative and helpful to see where improvements could be made or what work was done well.

CRITERIA AND COMMENTS

1. Overall Appearance includes condition of the quilt, neatness, pleasing feeling and appearance, uniqueness, relationship of boarders to quilt body.
2. Workmanship includes accuracy of piecing or applique, quality of stitching, bindings and corners.
3. Suitability includes compatibility of materials to function and to each other, design and color in relationship to intended use.
4. Color includes choice of values to enhance design, rhythm, originality, relationships.
5. Design includes scale, placement, unity, distinctiveness, originality, relationship of quilting design.

Critique:

Viewers Choice awards can be won by any quilt in the show. Average citizens who vote usually do so on an emotional level. Meaning they choose a quilt because it is their favorite color, animal, design impact, etc...Quilters on average vote for all around good workmanship. These two voting methods many times balance each other.

You responded to last years survey with great enthusiasm. Let us see you do the same this year.

Be Creative,
Library Lines
The library opens 1 hour before and closes 10 minutes prior to the start of both the Thursday night and Friday morning meetings.

A total of 4 magazines and 3 books can be checked out per month.

Have your membership card ready to show us when checking out library materials.

There is a late charge of $1 per book and/or magazine per month. If you are unable to attend a meeting, library materials can be sent prior to the due date via 4th class mail to:

Paula Hagg, 2181 Princeton Ave., St. Paul, MN 55102

Once again we are in need of library volunteers for both the evening and morning meetings. As our membership and library grows, so does our need for more help. It only requires one hour of your time per month. It’s a fun and easy way to show your support of MQ. If you think you might be interested, come early to the meeting and speak to Paula Hagg (evening librarian) or Dorothy Scholtz (morning librarian).

Thank you to Megan Riley and Catherine Bach for their recent donation of books to the MQ library.

Paula Hagg, MQ Librarian

Split Rock Arts Program Scholarships
We received a letter from the Split Rock Arts Program thanking us for our contribution for three scholarships. The recipients are Roxanne Garouette, Erica Mock and Naomi Price. Due to our support, "Split Rock has really become a fabric artist's program...and we intend to keep bringing top quilters to Split Rock."

We look forward to seeing some of the participant's finished work at a future meeting.

Evening Meeting Refreshments
Thank you to all who signed up for refreshments and kitchen help for the evening meetings. The August treats were brought by Eleanor Gordon, Cheryl Hagg, Jeri Virkus and Jenny Nagel. September volunteers are: Denise Galligan, Phyllis Ostrom.
Jennifer Amor Coming
October 1, 2, 3, 1992
Fall Lecture Series will be on October 1, 2 and 3 and our guest teacher and lecturer will be Jennifer Amor. Jennifer is a well-known national teacher and designer whose teaching skills have been in demand at guild and conferences throughout the United States as well as being on the faculties of Houston Quilt Festival and the American Quilter’s Society shows.

She is the author of "Flavor Quilts for Kids to Make," a technique involving flavored powdered fruit drink colors for dying textiles, her quilts and wearable art have been seen in many publications such as the American Quilter, Threads, Lady’s Circle Patchwork Quilt and other publications.

On Thursday evening, 7 pm, October 1, she will present her lecture, "Wearable Art," a humorous slide lecture of wearable and NOT so wearable art, and she will also have some of her own garments to show. Friday morning, at 10 AM, October 2, her lecture is titled, "On the Road Again," a funny slide trip to the world of quilts and quilt conferences with what Jennifer call "time saving" hints that no one ever thought of before!!!

Jennifer will also offer two workshops. The first is all day Oct. 1, Thursday, and continues on Friday afternoon and it is "Wearable Art." It is a workshop on how to adapt commercial patterns to create an original free-form garment and how to design fabulous piece of clothing. Workshop cost is $35, and there is a $1 supply fee to be paid in class. The hours are 9 AM to 4:30 PM with a break for lunch. (Either bring a sack lunch or eat out at a nearby restaurant.) On Friday afternoon the second part of this workshop will start at 1 PM and end at 4:30 PM.

"Bargello and Beyond" is the all day workshop Jennifer will offer on Saturday, October 3. You will learn to plan and make those way undulating designs of flowing colors. She will lead you though all the steps toward creating four blocks that you can use as a wall hanging. If you have had experience in strip piecing or are an intermediate quilter, this workshop is for you. The cost is $25, and the $1 supply fee will be paid in class. The workshop hours are 9 AM to 4:30 PM, and there will be a break for lunch. Either bring a sack lunch or plan to eat in Wayzata.

All of the lectures and workshops will be held at Wayzata Community Church. The workshops are open to paid members of Minnesota Quilters only, and your membership number must be included on your registration. This number appears on your membership card. Registration accepted by mail only. The lectures are open to all, but members of Minnesota Quilters must present their membership cards and $1 at the door. Non-members are requested to pay $2 at the door.

Checks should be made payable to Minnesota Quilters, and the registration sent to Laura Sahlberg, 834 Sherwood Ave., St. Paul, MN 55106. Phone: (612) 778-8065. Please write a separate check for each workshop. Non-registration questions can be answered by Carol Wagner, (612) 448-6286.
Count-Down to
The Great Minnesota Quilt-In
Hundreds of quilters from dozens of communities across the state have signed up for the event. Xerox corporation has generously donated printing for this project. Thank you, Xerox!

We are still recruiting quilters. Please direct interested quilters to Sylvia Burgos Wander, (612) 722-8236 or Carolyn Parnell, (612) 721-6928 for additional information.

Please note the following:
• Sorry due to computer snafu, quilters wanting donation ideas or press relations help need to contact Sylvia Burgos Wander, (612) 722-8236, 4404 44th Ave. S., Mpls., MN 55406.

Twin Cities Quilters: There is still space at:
• Mall of America. Call Sylvia Burgos Wander or Carolyn Parnell ASAP to reserve your spot. Tables, chairs and electricity for your sewing machines will be provided free.
• Town Square Park, St. Paul. Call Karen Hall, (612) 642-1581.
• Galtier Plaza, St. Paul. Call Karen Hall, (612) 642-1581.
• Science Museum, St. Paul. Call Karen Hall, (612) 642-1581.

• Quilt-Ins will not take place at either the Southdale Mall or Rosedale Mall because of expensive insurance requirements.

• We still need finely-crafted quilts (lap-size and larger) for auction. All monies to go to agencies serving children at risk. Please call Sylvia Burgos Wander, (612) 722-8236, ASAP!

American Sewing Guild Expo
Once again this year Minnesota Quilters will have space at the American Sewing Guild Expo. Please give some thought to volunteering your time in some way to make this a successful effort on Oct. 2, 3 & 4. I'll have further information at the September meetings.

Congratulations Betty!
In attending a Jinny Beyers Seminar at the Hilton Head Island, South Carolina, Betty Bissonnette was inspired to create a quilt using fragmentation cut-outs from some Alexander Henry fabric in the squares, scalloped borders and the back. Colors used are purples, pinks, reds, navy and aquas. "I do hand piecing and handquilting and most of my patterns are originals so I love to create. I have 7 grandchildren to make quilts for. I'm a late bloomer, but love it."

At the 1992 Rochester, MN Quilt Show in June it got an honorable mention (Viewers Choice). In Utah's 20th Anniversary-Festival of the American West 1992 Show (Great West Fair) it won Outstanding Small Quilt Award. They give large and small feature awards (ribbon and money).

But what excites and thrills Betty most is the American Quilters Society of Paducah, Kentucky wants to photograph the quilt for the 1994 Quilt Art Calendar.
