Notes From the President
Dear Fellow Quilters:
This is my favorite time of the year. I love the prospect of getting out the holiday decorations, many of them quilted items made in the past years and not seen since last January. It is also a time to touch base with old friends and to get together with family. It is what makes this time so special. For some reason, even when we are the busiest, we find time to do these things because of the holiday season. I will bake and cook things that I have not made for a year. We entertain more at this time. Why don't we find the time to do these things during the rest of the year? I often wish I could sustain the level of activity of the next six weeks throughout the year. I would certainly get a lot more done!

Try to take time to enjoy one of our December meetings. Show and tell is a great reason to get those gifts finished early. And of course there is the fabric challenge, which as yet I have not started, but do plan to at least have pieced by the meeting, I don't have to have mine finished until my out-of-town family arrives.

Even if we cannot keep up the pace of the pre-holiday activity indefinitely, remember to keep the spirit in your heart throughout the year.

Happy Holidays to all of you and those you care about.
Ellen Carter, President

February Lecture Series
Guest Speaker Joan Hanson
Our speaker for the February Lecture Series will be Joan Hanson from Seattle Washington. Joan has published two books, Calendar Quilts and Sensational Settings. Along with the lectures she will also do a half-day workshop called "Tops to Quilts". This workshop is a demonstration class that takes students step by step from adding borders to marking the top, basteing (thread and pin), choosing quilting designs, quilting methods (hand and machine), marking bias binding, stitching on the binding and mittering the corners, making a sleeve for hanging, and finally, the label. Lots of tips, tricks and shortcuts. You are encouraged to bring tops or other unfinished projects to be discussed in class, (no project is too humble!) and pen and paper for notes. A hand out will be provided.

1995 Quilt Show Update!
Great News! We have a volunteer to Chair the 1995 quilt show. Jean Humensky whom many of you know from the Country Peddler, has agreed to head the 1995 quilt show committee. Jean has a very busy schedule so she would like to find a co-chair to back her up when demands take her out of town. Any takers? I'm sure there is someone out there who might be interested. Don't be shy, speak up!

My last month's column produced several enthusiastic volunteers who are greatly appreciated. Our next task is to find a place and date. We do want to have it in the metro area, so if anyone has any great ideas please contact me.

Working on the show is a lot of work, but it is also a lot of fun. Think about it — give me a call! Ellen Carter (612) 942-8201.

Galaxy of Stars Fashion Show
Is your holiday outfit done yet? I'm up to my eyeballs in entry forms for the fashion show, waiting for the SASE's to come pouring in!

There's still time before Christmas to sew for the children or grandchildren. Many of you sew children's clothes that should be shown off in the fashion show. If you ever need ideas, here are several suggestions. Go to the fabric stores and check out all the cute picture prints available. While you are there, look at the buttons. You will fall in love with a set of buttons and then have to make an outfit to put them on!

Have you ever walked through the ready to wear children's section of a store? Better take a notepad and pencil with you. You will get a lot of ideas for pockets, trims, embellishments, applique, and pieced parts not to copy exactly but to use as a spingboard for your own creations. (Many ideas are adaptable to adult clothing too.) Also, look through catalogs and the Sunday paper ads. Cut out and save what you like. Draw design ideas right on the picture.

Entry forms and rules available by SASE from:

Housing Bureau available for Quilt Show
The St. Cloud Convention and Visitors Bureau has set up a Housing Bureau to help with your motel accommodations for the '94 Quilt Show. There are 11 motels with a total of 502 rooms available through this service. The way it works is they have given us a form (page 5). You may use the one in the newsletter or make a copy of the form that you will fill out and send to them, they will make your reservation at the motel of your choice and the motel will confirm the reservation directly with you. No reservations will be taken by phone and all reservations are on a first come first serve basis.

The second part of this service is that the Convention Bureau will know how many people are staying at each motel and they will run a shuttle bus between the motels and the Civic Center for the duration of the show. Reservations can be made through this service until June 1, 1994. Below is a list of the participating motels and their rates. If you have any questions you can call the Chamber of Commerce at 1-800-264-2940.

Note: The Kelley Inn and the Radisson Suites are both connected to the Civic Center.

Library Lines
You may have noticed several new titles from That Patchwork Place on the shelves at the November meeting. That Patchwork Place has a program that gives a complimentary copy of all their publication to qualifying guilds. They recently contacted me and together we were able to get Minnesota Quilters added to their list. The result was a shipment of ten-YES, TEN- brand new publications. They include three new books from their Quilt Shop Series, two new books on small-miniature quilts—Lively Little Logs (with 1/4" finished strips in log cabins) and Little Quilts All Around the House by the folks at Little House. Several other books came in this shipment. The complimentary copies are identified inside the cover with a special note form That Patchwork Place. What a great program! This will greatly increase our book buying potential. Drop them a note of appreciation if you like.

The library opens at 6:00 PM on Thursday and 8:30 AM on Friday before the meeting and closes ten minutes before the meeting. A total of three books and four magazines may be checked out per month. Have your membership card ready to show when checking out library materials. Books are due at the next regular meeting and cannot be renewed. There is a late charge of $1.00 per book and/or magazine per month. If you are unable to attend the meeting, library materials can be sent PRIOR TO THE DUE DATE via 4th class mail to: Minnesota Quilters, 1399 Eustis Street, St. Paul, MN 55108.

If you would like to volunteer as a library helper at the next meeting, please call Peggy Hall, MQ Librarian at 338-4360. A machine is waiting for your call.

From the Heart
by Mary Lou Lembcke ©

As I look out my window this morning and saw five inches of newly fallen, heavy, wet snow and Halloween is still a week away...it reminds me that even though this is awful early, winter is fast approaching. The snow created an unusual background for the glorious, warm fall colored leaves and mums that were now peeking woefully from under their heavy, white blanket.

Ordinarily, I would put ecru or even a soft beige in such a collection of colors...but, white is not a color I would have chosen. Never, never...not ever! But, here, I was seeing mother nature's wise suggestion before me. And, upon viewing it, I felt a fresh and pleasing acceptance of this surprising new, fall palette. Now, if I were to transfer this scene to quilting...and I was thinking of a fall colored quilt...a soft golden color would have been there...but now with a push of a "button", my mind inserts white. I like it, I really like it! See how easily things can happen to effect our decisions. I know this experience will stay with me in my future projects.

And with all this talk of white and snow, it triggers yet another thought...yikes...CHRISTMAS! Christmas is coming, Christmas is coming...ready or not! "Can't you just smell the baking of the Christmas goodies...imagine the wonderful gifts all wrapped and under the tree...see the beds all decked out in beautiful Christmas quilts and the house is clean and ready for guests...and..." Wait a minute. Back up! Something is wrong with this scene. I don't mean the baking and the shopping and the clean house! It's none of these, because these things are possible. It's those Christmas quilts on all the beds! The dream always wakes me up at this point, and I promise myself that next year will be different! next year? What happens during the year to get me off the track? This year something else will have to do to add the special touch to the house. But, next year for sure...Christmas quilts! At least, tops...on every bed!

This year, I'll make hearts and mittens with everyone's name on them and hang them on the tree and with the ribbons on the packages. I'll cut a heart and a mitten the size I want them out of muslin to use as a base. I will lay several colors over this in the crazy quilt style. I will write the names with a pigma pen on a light colored fabric, or embroider with floss. Lay a backing fabric, wrong side up, over the name. Stitch around leaving an opening to turn it right side out. Stuff if desired. Stitch closed the opening. Press if not stuffed. And a string for hanging on the tree or attaching to the presents. Next year, Christmas quilts...right? Right! Better start working on that right now!
Merry Christmas! Happy Stitching!
