Shelly Burge will be Featured by the Lecture Series in August
Shelly Burge began quilting in 1973. Her quilts are based in tradition but she adds her own special touch to make them unique. Shelly has had four quilts juried into the AQS show. Her quilts have received ten awards in National Quilting Association shows. Her miniature quilts have been awarded top award in many state shows and received the Lynn Harris Award for miniature quilts from NQA.

Shelly's quilts & articles have been featured in Quilter's Newsletter, Ladies Circle/Patchwork Quilts, QUILT Magazine, Traditional Quiltworks, and Quilt World Magazine. In 1992 she was awarded the "Jewel Pearce Patterson Scholarship" sponsored by AQS for quilting teachers, which took her to Holland. In 1993 the Houston Quilt Festival hung a display of Shelly's quilts and her students' quilts. In October 1995, Shelly's book on "Dutch Inspirations" developed from her Holland experience will be published. Shelly enjoys teaching and is known for giving fun, informative workshops and lectures.

Notes From the President
Well, this is it, my last column as your president. It's hard to believe that I have reached the end of my year, it has gone by so quickly. I wish that I had had time to meet and talk to more of you, to me quilters are the best part of quilting. Unfortunately, my work intruded and I ended up spending a fair portion of my year in Sweden. Which brings me to the most important item. Minnesota Quilters does not "work" because of the President. It works because of the Board of Directors and all of the other people who volunteer in so many ways to make this such a great organization.

I was blessed with a great group of people to work with on the Board. Audrey, who could always step in for me as President (and probably do it better that I could), Greta and Meg, who planned and ran the monthly meetings. Joy, who has created more newsletters than I care to think about. Jean, who has somehow managed to plan and organize this years quilt show with a schedule that is even crazier than mine. Jan, who has kept the membership up to date while working up to three jobs at once. Sylvia, who keeps us focused on the larger issues of who we are and what we want to in the future. Virgie, who has kept after me to update our By-Laws and operational procedures. Carolyn, who keeps the public informed of what we are doing. Faye and Gayle, who keep track of our correspondence. Barb, who plans and watches over our budget. Jean, who keeps track of our board meetings. Jane, who has kept track of our money through illness and my travels. And finally, Linda, Pam, Ann, and Lynn, who have been learning on the job and can at last vote.

Three other people need to be singled out. Peggy Hall has done a wonderful job as our Librarian. Joanne Holzknecht keeps our Block of the Month running smoothly. And finally, Margaret Biversi, who as Lecture Series chairperson, plans, arranges for, and coordinates all the details involved in bringing nationally know speakers here 3 to 4 times a year.

I know that Audrey and the new board will continue our tradition of strong able leadership. Give them the same support and encouragement you have given me.

Meanwhile, there are quilts awaiting my attention...

David Shattuck, President

Meet Lynn Wytaske
Special Events—1996 Co-Show Chairperson
I'm sure we all have a couple of people in our lives who we would do anything for. My sister, Ann, is one of those people in my life, which will explain how I came to be Co-Chairman of the 1996 show to be held in Rochester. It will also help to explain why we choose our theme, "Sisters and Quilts - Connecting Threads". She is the one with the Home Economics degree and I am the one with a secretarial degree so we make a great team.

My first experience with MQ was when Ann and a couple of her friends took me to the 1994 Quilter's Show in St. Cloud. After the show we drove way out in the boondocks to go to a fabric store in the back of a grocery store. Although no one else in our group seemed to thinks this was strange, I must admit I did have my doubts about being a Co-chairman and if I knew enough about quilting to do the job.

My second experience was at the Pot Luck dinner last June held at Renay Leone's home. It was for in-coming and out-going Board members. As I listened to different people talking all I heard was fabric, fabric, fabric. Everyone seemed to know of a different shop where they had the best fabric and if you made a day of it someone could give you the names of about ten different shops and a road map of how to get there. One woman got her fabric that she had bought on the way to the pot luck, just to look at it again. As we drove home, I told Ann that now I know how I must sound when my friend and I talk about our favorite soap opera, "All My Children".

I am not completely quilter illiterate. I do know about UFO's and stash and I made a few quilts, though, usually with Ann's help. I am working on a snowball quilt now to give to my nephew for his graduation and made an Amish quilt for a nephew who graduated last year and a heart quilt for a niece who graduated the year before. I even picked out the fabric by myself for the snowball quilt. This is a major accomplishment since I usually make Ann come along. I do a lot of cross-stitch projects which are easier for me since they don't take up as much space when you are working on them and I don't need much of a stash.

I am a full-time homemaker in Pine Island. My husband, Mark, works at the Post Office in Rochester. We have three children: Emily is 9 years old and in the third grade; Joshua is 5 years old and in Kindergarten; and Heather will be 3 in June and she stays home with me. I have been the secretary on the Library Board of our public library since 1994 and am active in the United Methodist Church of Pine Island as a bible study leader and a worship leader.

I am excited about the 1996 show and think that we have a lot of fun planned for all of you. I hope that you will stop by out table at the 1995 show for a sneak peek and to get your challenge packet. This has been a great learning experience for me and I look forward to meeting all of you. I will even look at the fabric you bought if you want to show it to me.

Volunteers Needed!!!
I know that most of you out there are thinking about the upcoming quilt show, hoping you will be accepted for the classes, lectures, and seminars you have requested. Well, after you receive your confirmation for your classes and so forth, remember that a good quilt show cannot operate without volunteers. Volunteers are unsung heroes, running here and there, helping people find their way, assisting teachers, greeting people and taking tickets at the registration desk, selling and collecting raffle tickets, display work, white glove duty and so on. Volunteer shifts will be in two hour time blocks provided we have enough people sign-up.

In thanks for your efforts, all volunteers will receive a complimentary 1995 Quilts For All Seasons Show Pin. I know you all would have bought one anyway, so be on the volunteer team and receive one for FREE!!! If you have any questions, please feel free to give me a ring at home (612) 882-0864. If I'm not home please leave a message on the rather bizarre (my husband has a weird sense of humor) answering machine.

Door Prizes
Our tradition at the annual quilt show has been to award door prizes at the lectures and at the banquet. Would you consider helping us by donating an item to be used as a door prize? Any variety of items are welcome: fabric, patterns, quilting supplies, books, finished items or gift certificates. If we receive a large quantity of a small item, it could be given out in the registration packets.

Besides helping to make our show more exciting, prizes are an excellent way to advertise, as all contributors are listed in our show catalog, and their names announced as prizes are awarded.

Please consider this request and let us know by calling Nancy Hall at (612) 924-0078 or Bonnie Weinandt at (612) 222-7846. The door prizes may be sent anytime between now and June 1st.

Until June 1st they may be mailed to:
Nancy Hall 4440 Claremore Drive, Edina, MN 55435

We can also make arrangements to pick up local contributions. If you have any questions or can not make the above deadlines, please call either Nancy or Bonnie as soon as possible. Thank you.

Crowning Glory Project

The American Cancer Society, Minnesota Quilters, Inc., and Surface Design of MN have joined with other Twin Cities artists and sewers to make headcoverings for patients after chemotherapy. These are in place of hair, not as ear warmers. The need is for 7000 hats in 1995.

Many ingredients are needed, each is varied amounts and colors. Your donation even a small one added to others will enable us to make many unique hats. Everything must be hand washable and it would be helpful if fabrics were washed before donation. Please mark content and if washed.

MQ Members in the News

The May Block of the Month winners were Sandy Claessens, New Hope and Cheryl Forsythe, Plymouth both winners of 35 Tulip Blocks each! A record number of 41 members participated.

Congratulations to Martha Eaves, St. Paul, Gwen Lundgren, Rosemount and Judi Smith, Lakeville winners of the "fabulous incentive prizes" for the Early Bird Small Quilt Drawings in May.

Quilter, Betty Bissonnette, Mpls., won two awards in the April 1995 Omaha, NE show. "Remember Me Though Stitches" and received two lovely handmade ribbons. Her "Cameo Girl" wallhanging won the Best Commorative. It has a Victorian look and 16 three dimensional roses. Her Large "Evening Shades" pink and purple shades sampler with a checkerboard border received an award for Best Visual Effect. They both should be in the MQ show in Eagan in June.

Our sympathy goes to Darlene Dols, Chaska who recently lost her daughter-in-law to a tragic accident in April.
From The Heart

Summer is here! School is out! Gardens are blooming and many need weeding already. The days are long and lazy... and the lakes are calling us to come swim, boat and fish. The quilting projects are put away "on the back burner". Visits to the quilt shops have slowed up... and baseball is back once again! In your husband's dreams! Our car turned 100,000 miles, and there are a lot of quilt shop visits in that number. Summer is here, that much is true. And, you know what that means. Any Christmas projects you have in mind should be well under way by now. The swimming, fishing, boating and baseball may be summer activities for other people, but the only sideline I get interested in is my garden. And only because it is an excellent source for color and pattern ideas. Ideas are just everywhere. I've told you before, you can get the idea and design for a whole quilt from just one plant. (or tree, bush, pond.) The flower could be the center block and then you could piece and applique different borders all based on the buds, leaves, insects, garden visitors (birds, rabbits, butterflies), weeds and vines, etc. Talk about color and a true challenge. Try a garden quilt!

Take a plain piece of paper and pencil. Walk into the yard and select a plant, flower or tree that interests you. (Remember how it looks in all seasons.) Study it. Sketch. Decide what your main theme could be and make it the center block. Plan borders. Look at the leaves and stems and the negative spaces in between. Are you getting any ideas? If you like what you come up with, why not try it in fabric!

You know, being challenged is what drives us to finish one project (or stick it away for a "rainy day" unfinished), and then start right in on another. A challenge is why we get started in the first place. It is why we are so overwhelmed and captivated by the beautiful fabric patterns and colors. It is why the wheels start turning in our heads and ideas begin popping like flash bulbs. Finally, it is why we cut this gorgeous stuff up into small pieces and then sew them back together again. Have you ever "heard" yourself saying... "I'd like to make a quilt in those colors", or "I can do that", or, "next, I'm trying a watercolor design"... etc? Of course you have! You know what I'm talking about. They are all just challenges to yourself. No wonder we started so many things.

I am currently in a Round Robin. Talk about a challenge! There are six of us. We met the first time to talk about it and set up the rules and exchange our first block. The first time we got together again to pass on the blocks, we hit our first snag. Three were done, and three were not! One hadn't even started yet! Really! Round one was the easiest of all... if half of us couldn't even do that... we're in trouble. I suggested we quit right there. That idea was shot down at once. Excuses flew around the room and promises were made. So, we will go on and see what happens. I should say, that, of those who didn't finish, one was a very experienced and long time quilter whose idea it was to this Round Robin. Another was a real, true beginner, and she almost got finished with a beautiful and intricately pieced border anyone would be proud to claim. So there is a lost to consider when joining a group like this... but, the first thing that should be remembered is commitment. It isn't fair for some to be done on time and some to "put things off." People probably work harder on these round robins than they would on their own projects. It is scary to pick up a friend's quilt and have to work in different colors than you usually do. You worry if what you add on will be what she wants... will she like it? Are the points sharp? Have I cut any off? Do my stitches show? And, of course, you want it passed to you all "squared", and you have to pass it on "squared". It is scary, but it is fun and exciting! Laughter, tears, taking pictures and show and tell! If this for you and your friends, an excellent book on the subject is "Round Robin Quilts" by Pat Magaret and Donna Slusser from That Patchwork Place. It is must for anyone involved in a Round Robin project. It provides a buddy" to work with for encouragement, as it offers may ideas and solutions and support. Also, there are many "round robin" variations such as jackets, vest and block quilts.

So, there are several suggestions for you for summer activities. All the way from the lakes to the gardens to the studio. Try one or all... and, have a glorious summer! Happy Stitching!

Corrections to the Revision of the By-Laws

Upon reading the by laws revisions in the May newsletter we were made aware that we had listed our fiscal year incorrectly. The following is the corrected article.

Article VII, Section 1, Fiscal Year. The Fiscal Year of the corporation shall begin on the first day of November (was June) of each year and end on the thirty-first of October (was May).

A sincere thank you to Gay Hennessy (MQ bookkeeper) for bringing this to my attention.

Also, the number of Directors was incorrectly stated. The article should read:

Article IV, Section 2, Number. The number of Directors shall be seventeen (17) (previously there were fourteen). The Board of Directors shall be the following officers of the Corporation: A President, a President-elect, a Day Director, an Evening Director, A Recording Secretary, A Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer, and eight committee Chairpersons. The Directors are as follows:

A Note From The Treasurer

I wish to thank all of our members for their understanding with regards to renewal and new memberships.

In a perfect world you would pay your dues, and within the week you would all get your updated membership cards. But, alas, our world is far from perfect.

My world is a lot like many of yours having few spare hours. I work a full time job for Fleming Inc., working 45 hours most weeks, we are raising two sons 14 and 5, which in itself is a full time job, along with trying to run a household with a spouse who has been traveling outside the country for most of the past nine months. Things tend to get very stressed.

As your volunteer treasurer, I try my best to stay current processing checks and getting your information to Jan Puckett, membership director, every two weeks. She then updates our membership roster, so you won’t miss any of those wonderful newsletters.

As Jan’s life can be as busy as any of ours, the cards sometimes can be delayed. I ask that you give us the same consideration as for any membership/subscription that you can apply for. Please allow us the 6-8 weeks processing time for your cards to arrive.

Again, I thank you for your patience. If you have any questions, please feel free to call me.

Jane Shattuck, Treasurer
