Happy New Year to All Minnesota Quilters!

Kick off the new year with a special preview of the 1998 Minnesota Quilters Show in St. Cloud. The show committee members will be present at the January day and evening meetings to share previews, notes, and tantalizing tastes of the upcoming show. Join us at 7 PM on Thursday, January 8 and at 9:30 AM on Friday, January 9 for all the fun! The Country Peddler will be our vendor. They will try to have available some of the books written by the teachers who will be offering classes at the quilt show as well as fabrics and notions. Of course, there will be show and tell to inspire us. Mark your calendars and come to our meetings for a great beginning to the new year!

How do I get to an MQ Meeting??— Directions to Machinists' Hall — 1399 Eustis Street, St. Paul. From Highway 280 take Como Ave. exit. If coming from I-94, turn right at the bottom of the ramp. If coming from the North, turn right on Eustis Street. (Health Partners [was Group Health] building is on the right.)

At the October meeting, the Board voted to give KAWE-TV, Channel 2, $700 to sponsor quilt-related programming. This station serves Northern Minnesota.

RANDOM THOUGHTS FROM THE DAY DIRECTOR

If you missed the holiday celebrations that Minnesota Quilters recently held, you missed a good time. The evening banquet was beautiful, and the food outstanding by all reports. We're pretty sure that Luther Seminary will be next year's caterer also! The morning meeting was a pot luck, and once again we proved that quilters are great cooks. Wonderful food was enjoyed by all who attended. We surprised Joanne Holzknecht with the log cabin blocks, and we opened the appliqué Round Robins. Lucky winners of the appliqué round-robin were Jane Shattuck, Jan Hempel, Susan MacLennan, Betty Emerson, and Gail Porter. This seemed to be a very successful project and I would like to repeat it with a summer theme if enough interest is expressed.

NOTES FROM THE PRESIDENT

Boy, these newsletters sure come around fast! They didn't until I had to write an article every month, now they just fly by. You will be getting your show brochure in the mail very soon. It will be brimming with all kinds of information for you to study and give you lots of fun decisions about next June's show. We now have the ability to accept credit card payments for all payments you wish to make—membership renewals, lecture series workshops, MQ merchandise, and show registration. We're hoping it will make everything more convenient for everyone. If you haven't made your hotel reservations in St. Cloud yet, please do so as they will be filling up fast. As usual, the January meeting will be put on by the show committee. We will be using the same format that the Duluth committee used, as it was very successful, and we will do everything we can to make the decisions easier for you.

I have had three people come up to me and say "Why don't we have the show in Duluth every year?" They have a good point, and it may come to that someday, but for now we still have a few facilities that will accommodate us and it is nice to move the show around the state to make it more accessible to more of our members. However, at the rate we're growing, Duluth may be the only place we will fit in a few years—wouldn't it be great if we had such a huge show that only one building in the entire state was large enough? I think that what the '97 show demonstrated was the potential that this organization has, and frankly it's a little scary. Just look at what a group of "little old ladies with blankets" can do!

Happy Stitching,

Jackie Northrup
MQ President

Be sure to send in your quilt show, exhibit, or contest information to the editor. Send in as soon as you find out your event dates; the deadline for this newsletter is the first day of the month before the newsletter is printed (e.g., January 1 for the February newsletter). Your quilt show or exhibit does NOT have to be MQ sponsored. The only requirement is that it be quilt related.
Two years ago when my guild was doing a mystery project for the summer, we had to cut up a bunch of five inch squares. So I cut up what I needed for the project, and then cut up a few more since I had a pile of charms that I had traded for when I went to Paducah. When looking through Quilters Newsletter Magazine, I noticed the charm exchange ads. I thought this would be a great way to really increase my supply and get different fabrics from all over.

So, I got some names out of the magazine and sent out the first few, and got a few back. The next month I sent out a few more and got a few more back. And then I was addicted. I sent my name in to Minnesota Quilters and got in with a wonderful bunch of ladies that sent out charms right on schedule. But that wasn’t enough to feed my addiction. I had to send my name in to Quilters Newsletter Magazine so I could do a whole lot of trades. I waited for what seemed like months (and it was) and then one day, my name showed up in the magazine. If you ask for it, they will mail it. And did they ever mail them. There were days when there were 10 trades in my mailbox. From all over the country, and all over the world they poured into my mailbox.

So I would tear open the envelopes and sort out the fabric. There would be a pile of fabric that I wanted to keep and another of fabric that I would send back out in trades. At first I felt guilty about sending fabric back out that I had gotten in trades, but I came to the conclusion that there is a lot of ugly fabric out there and it keeps getting recycled by being sent out in charm exchanges. I’m sure there are a few pieces of truly ugly fabric that I’ve seen come around more than once. But there’s got to be someone out there who likes these poor little rejects, and hopefully someday they will get pulled out of the revolving mailing envelope and end up in a quilt somewhere.

A Garden of Quilts
June 18-20 1998
Saint Cloud MN

It's hard to believe how time is racing by as we prepare for the show in June. Our printer is busy working on our registration brochure so that we can have it in the mail between Christmas and New Year's. We hope you will like the changes in format that we are trying this year. We want to make it easier for you to fill out every form in the brochure—volunteering, exhibiting, registering for classes and lectures, donating door prizes, contributing a small quilt, participating in the challenges, getting more raffle tickets—whatever your possibilities are.

Don't forget to make sure your Minnesota Quilters membership is current so that you can take advantage of the perk we offer to our members of being able to register for classes, lectures, and events about two weeks earlier than for non-members. You MUST be a member as of January 1, 1998, for early registration eligibility.

In our planning we have tried to keep all the things that have made our shows wonderful in the past, added new things so that we continue to feel that wonderful feeling of anticipation of pleasant surprises we all love, and to make some adjustment to make things work even smoother than before. Each year we grow, but each year we have heard the comments of how friendly our show is, and how well it is run—even especially when you consider that the work is all done by volunteers who serve on the committee and by members who participate in all kinds of ways. Our goal is to continue to offer a top quality show and conference and still maintain our Minnesota Quilters reputation of being inclusive of all types of quilting and all levels of ability.

You will be excited about your show this year! You won't believe the choices you will get to make! We want you to enjoy, enjoy, enjoy. Don't forget that you can send us email via the MQ web site at www.mnquilts.org or you can contact anyone on the committee directly. We have included the names and home phone numbers of committee members here because we want to hear from you if you have any questions. Many of us work outside the home, so please give us time to get back to you! If you find yourself talking to any of these committee members, please express your appreciation for their time and effort.

Get Ready!

It takes all of us to put on a great quilt show. We need you to keep some time free for volunteering. It’s a fun way to meet new friends and help make your quilt show a success.

Colorful Quilts Under New Ownership

Susan Stein, owner of Colorful Quilts and a long-time member of Minnesota Quilters, will be moving away from Minnesota. She had sold her shop, Colorful Quilts & Textiles, to new owners. Their message to the "fans" of Colorful Quilts:

"Dear Friends,

We are Sandra Hopkins, Pam Moran, and Diane Swallen, the new proprietors of Colorful Quilts and Textiles. We feel so privileged to have this opportunity to continue this special quilt shop as the innovative and exciting place that Susan Stein established and nurtured.

All of us owe a great debt to Susan for her years of work in establishing this special community of quilters. For many years she has lead the regional quilt movement through her own quilted creations. She was a primary force in establishing the Minnesota Contemporary Quilters and has served as its leader and linchpin, keeping quilters informed and in touch with each other. She has served Minnesota Quilters by holding a variety of leadership positions and supporting its many projects and activities. By establishing Colorful Quilts and Textiles, she gave us a special place to gather and learn from each other. To Susan we send a sincere 'Thank you for all you've given us and helped us to become. We wish you well, and hope you'll return to us.'

The three of us will have a hard time replacing one of Susan. But we are determined to continue the pace she has set. Your favorite instructors and hand dyers will be staying with us! We will be offering a wide range of classes for all levels of quilters and dyers. We are also introducing several new teachers and classes in our winter schedule. More opportunities for innovative quilting, beading, and doll making! We will continue to be 'home' for the best selection of hand dyed fabrics in the region and will continue offering an exciting array of quality commercial fabrics. We will continue building bridges to other arts such as doll making and beading, and, as in the past, have special shows and events. We will welcome your ideas and suggestions!

Our dream is to continue this special atmosphere where all who love fabric can gather and be nourished by the colors, textures, and friendships. We look forward to meeting each of you, please drop by and say hello!"

The shop will again be open on January 1, when they host the annual New Year's Day open house and sale. Everything in the store will be 20% off! New business hours will be 10 AM to 5:30 PM Monday, Friday and Saturday, noon to 9:30 PM Tuesday through Thursday, and closed on Sunday. Colorful Quilts and Textiles will also be hosting a Dyer’s Expo on Saturday, January 7 (the date is incorrect in the class listing letter). For more information about the shop, please call them at (612)628-9664 or stop by:

Dayton Hudson Grant
The Dayton Hudson Corporation has generously given a grant of $1000 to the Minnesota Quilt History Project. The grant will be used for costs incurred for the planning and initial preparation of the proposed 1999 Minnesota Quilt Project Exhibit.

Reed's Fabrics Closes
Reed's Fabrics, located in White Bear Lake since 1961, closed its doors on Wednesday, December 10. Owners Elle and Mason Krelitz have retired, and the new owners of the upstairs drug store decided not to continue in the fabric business. Quilters, especially in the northern suburbs, will miss this great store!

Comfort Caps on the Road
Mary Hess and Bonnie Ellis, the hearts and souls behind Comfort Caps, the hats for women who have lost their hair due to cancer treatments, have been on the road promoting this great idea. They missed the December Holiday meeting because they were at a show in Florida (too bad!), and will head off to Puyallup, WA in February. For more information on the Comfort Caps, or to get a pattern, please talk to Mary or Bonnie at the January meeting.

BLOCK OF THE MONTH
At the January meeting, we will draw for the "Village Square" block.

CONGRATULATIONS!!
Jan Herfindal, Dolores O'Brien, Cheryl Forsythe, and Joan Lucht won the "Gingerbread Boy" blocks at the December meeting! Please join us in the block of the month drawing. See page 3 for the next block and how to become a winner!
