February Member Meetings
Our planned February speaker, Robbi Joy Ecklow, is not going to be able to be with us. Robbi is having travel-limiting surgery, so we wish her well and plan to reschedule. Robbi put out the word to her teaching friends, and we are happy to announce that our February speaker is Karen K. Stone.

Karen will present a trunk show of earlier work: Influences and Lessons Learned (on Thursday), and later quilts: Techniques, Collecting, and Shopping (Saturday). Karen will also teach an all-day class, “Techniques from Clam Shell”, focusing on techniques from her newest award-winning quilt. It should be a great learning and fun time. Look for the registration form in this newsletter or on the website for the latest information.

Let’s Get Back to our Roots!
Hello wonderful members. We’d like to gather a group of members who would like to create, sew and quilt our 2011 Raffle Quilt! We can use the room where we have our MQ meetings until late afternoon each month and we may be able to meet at someone’s home a couple Sundays of the month as well. Let’s get together and QUILT!

We would love to have the quilt completed for the June 2010 Quilt Show. Please contact one of the board members if you’d like to help or stay for a short meeting after the Saturday, February 6th MQ meeting.

Nominations for 2010 Outstanding Volunteer

The MQ Board is looking for nominations for Outstanding Volunteer for 2010. Nominate someone who you think has been an outstanding long-term volunteer for our organization. This person will be honored at our April 2010 general meetings. Please send your nominations to any of the current Board members or to ops@mnquilt.org.
Notes From the President

The Board of Directors is working very hard to make MQ the best organization that we can. Working along side of our staff, it takes many volunteer hours and behind-the-scenes work to make this organization run smoothly. Everyone on the Board cares about quilting and is passionate about MQ. Several people on the Board are doing double duty and volunteering in some capacity on the 2010 Show Committee. I am amazed at the talent and dedication of this group of women! Please thank them for their volunteerism.

Our Nominating Committee is looking for people who are passionate about quilting and especially about MQ to fulfill some opening roles on the MQ Board come October. If you are interested in being on the Board or if you are asked to join the Board of Directors, please give it careful, thoughtful consideration. We have job descriptions for all of the Board positions. You are also welcome to come to a Board meeting at any time to observe and think about if you would like to become a member of this exciting, dynamic group of people!

I hope all of you have registered for the Show or are thinking about what classes/events you want to attend and will register soon. We depend on our members supporting our Show, so please register, attend the Show and enter your quilts.

It is the middle of winter – cold, snow and ice abound. What a great time of year to be a quilter. I look forward to these cold, snowy days and nights when I have to stay home – my sewing machine calls to me! I hope your sewing machine or needles call to you, too!

“Quilting is my passion – chocolate comes in a close second!”

December Board Meeting Highlights

The MQ auditors presented their report. MQ made great progress in cost containment this past year, but these efforts must continue.

The MQ 2010 show budget was approved.

A new volunteer position will be created, that of “Show Budget Director.” This will be an ongoing position, meant to provide budgetary planning in assistance of the show chairs. The Show Budget Director will serve at the head of a volunteer Show Budget Committee.

A grant of $2000 was made to KAWB (Brainerd area) public television station, in support of the airing of quilting and sewing shows.

Next meeting of the MQ Board is February 16, 2010. Guests are always welcome.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS NOMINATIONS

It is that time of year when we need to start considering who will fill the vacant positions on the Board of Directors. The first order of business in this process is to gather a Nominating Committee.

According to the MQ rules there needs to be 4 people on this committee: the past president (Mary Brandt), 1 other former board member and 2 members at large. So the first item is that we need 3 volunteers that fit these requirements.

The second order of business is to find volunteers who are willing to run for the offices that will be open. You may go online at the MQ website to see the job descriptions for these positions or talk to any board member about them. If you are interested in any of these jobs, please contact Mary Brandt, Past President, at ppres@mnquilt.org, or contact any other board member.

Board Positions Opening Fall 2010

President Elect – this is a 3-year commitment. This person serves as President Elect, President and Past President.

Treasurer – 2-year commitment

Education Director (can be 2 people as co-directors) – 2-year commitment

Operations Co-director – 2-year commitment

We have a wonderful organization, and it remains so because of the great volunteers that keep it that way. Please consider helping out your guild and become a board member. And think about this, are you happy or unhappy with the way things are going or are done? Well, step up, join the board and find out why and how of things and the way to change them.

President’s Quilt Block

MQ has a tradition of presenting our president with “thank you” blocks for their year in term. Char has defined her block: 6”, 9” or 12” cat blocks. Past president, Mary Brandt, likes stars made with batiks, with the star being dark and then a light background. The size can vary, 6”, 9” or 12”.

Notes From the Secretary

With sadness we report that Trudy Wasson, a Minnesota Quilter, passed away on December 28 after a brief illness. Trudy was a master rosemaler and adapted traditional rosemaling designs to quilting. She won national prizes and her work is included in the American Quilters Society (AQS) permanent collection. She shared her knowledge and expertise with an enthusiasm we will all deeply miss.

Please help Minnesota Quilters stay in the know about our membership. In the case of the passing of any of our members, we would like to send our condolences to family and to acknowledge our loss. Additionally, we like to know when our members have reasons to celebrate, especially for quilt-related reasons. Please send any news to Karen O’Brien at secretary@mnquilt.org or call her at 651-489-2285.

While we endure the rest of winter get your pencil out and turn the calendar page to October. Mark your calendar for October 7-10.

These are the dates we will be at the U of MN Forestry Center, Cloquet MN. Space is limited at this beautiful location. The food is fabulous and there is plenty of workspace for each attendee.

Special Exhibits Call for Entries

Two of our special exhibits will represent the work of our membership.

You may choose to enter the “I Am a Quilter” exhibit by creating a 9”x 12” mini-quilt that represents who you are as a quilter.

The other exhibit, “Meet Me at the Fair” will feature quilts that have won first, second or third place ribbons at the State Fair.

Because space is limited in St. Cloud, please submit entries as early as possible so we can estimate how many bays we will need for display.

Submit your entries on the non-judged entry form, but SEND ENTRIES to Laura Nagel, 7885 Lower 139th Ct. W. Apple Valley, MN 55124 and not to the Non-Judged committee.

2010 Show Registration

The pre-registration for the 2010 “Quilting in the Quarry” Show opened at 12:01 a.m. on January 16.

For those who prefer to use on-line registration, there is a button on both the main Minnesota Quilters Inc. page and the show website itself.

You’ll see some changes for on-line registration as we are now using a much more powerful program to manage it.

You will be able to modify your own registration without contacting the Registration Co-Chairs until March 31, 2010. You will be able to cancel without charges until February 28, 2010. You will easily be able to register another person with just a click of a button when you finish your own registration. You will be able to register your guests for lectures, the banquet and other special events.

At the Saturday, January 9 meeting, we indicated the only difference between a Guest and Registering Another Person was who paid the bill. This was incorrect. We have since learned that Guests can only be registered for lectures, the banquet and other special events.

The primary advantage of using online registration is you know immediately whether you got in the classes you wanted. If you don’t get into a class, you will immediately have the option to be wait listed for it or can select another class.

Of course, you may use the paper form found at the back of the registration book. If you do this, be sure to indicate your second and third class choices since there will be a delay of several days between the time you mail the form and when your registration is entered into the system.

If a class is full, we will know immediately what your next choice is and your registration won’t be delayed any further.

This is looking to be an absolutely wonderful show and we are looking forward to sharing the excitement with you in St. Cloud.

Fat Quarter Drawing

In January we collected 24 “dots” fat quarters. These lovely fabrics went home with Kara Albrecht. Congratulations!

30’s is the theme for February.
March will be “birds.”
And in April, let’s think summer . . . beach, flip flops, picnics and the like.

Contribute up to three fat quarters (approximately 18” x 22”) of quilt-shop quality 100% cotton fabric in the theme of the month and we’ll enter your name in the drawing for that month (one entry for each fat quarter, up to a maximum of 3). Attach your name, address, and phone number to each fat quarter. Bring fat quarters to meeting or mail them to the MQ office, 3000 University Avenue SE #120, Mpls, MN 55414 should arrive before the Saturday meeting label the envelope “FQ Drawing.”

We draw one name at the beginning of the Saturday meetings. You need not be present to win. Questions or theme suggestions, please contact Carolyn Minor at 651-439-7139 or cminor@winternet.com.
A Song for Inspiration

Composed by the 2010 Non-Judged Quilt Committee
+ One. (You can sing this to the tune of “In the Bleak Midwinter”, composed by Gustav Theodore Holst [1874-1934])

In the bleak midwinter, frosty wind made moan,
Earth stands hard as iron, water like a stone.
We sit by our sewing machines wondering what to do.
Then comes the MQ Registration Book, and
All the wondering is through.

We go into our stash…
Our colors are quite lush.
It might look like a clutter,
But we see something else.

The non-judged category
Is calling to our souls.
We’re ready for adventure
At the St. Cloud Quilting Show.

We cut and sew the pieces
To make some glorious quilts
And ‘cuz we used our stash
We have no sense of guilt!

So we are going to mail in
The non-judged entry form
To make it by the due date
Of May first, twenty-ten.

Please join us in entering a non-judged quilt!

Melissa Nellis, Martha Eaves, Kathie Simon-Frank will sing this song to you upon request at the February meeting . . . Or not!

MQP Book Review

Border to Border: Historic Quilts and Quiltmakers of Montana is the latest published state documentation book. If you enjoyed any of the earlier documentation books, you will be pleased with this one.

Acknowledging that Montana followed the national trends in quilting, the author, Annie Hanshew, illuminates Montana’s quilt history from early settlement into the twenty-first century.

Filled with information about Montana, women’s role in the history of the state, and quilts made in Montana or brought to the state through immigration, it is a well-written and well-researched volume. Vivid and clear images of the quilts, as well as many of the quilters and historical events, compliment the text.

We so appreciate all of the pieces that have been turned in to date. They are turning out beautifully and each will make someone very happy. The first distribution of these items took place in December. We plan to continue this program for several months so bring items in as you complete them. The Brain Injury Association of Minnesota is looking for a quilting focus group. The purpose of the focus group is to help the Association plan and move forward with an idea for an ongoing group-quilting project held on site. There are many questions and things to consider and we would like to consult with a group of quilters who know the complete process and can shed light on what we may not know. Anyone interested in being part of the focus group should contact Anna Karena at 612-877-7911 or e-mail her at annak@braininjurymn.org.

MQ is looking for places to hold our monthly meetings while the Light Rail Construction is going on in front of the Textile Center. Membership Meeting Highlights

by Sue Rutford, Education Director

Wow! We got a lot of information at the Show meeting in January. There are going to be some great classes, events, and quilts in St. Cloud. As you are reading this, registration has opened and should be sailing along. We’re really excited about the new registration system and hope it will make the whole process much easier for both the folks who are registering and the Registration committee.

March is National Quilting Month, and we’ll be celebrating with two wonderful local quilters. The March 4th (Thursday night) meeting will be held at Eagan High School again and will feature Maxine Rosenthal, designer of One Block Wonders. Maxine has published three One Block Wonders books and is a wonderful, funny speaker. There will be a quilt show and reception in the library as well. We’re hoping to have vendors again to make the night complete. On Saturday, March 6th, we will be back at Textile Center to hear from Claudia Clark Myers, Confessions of an Ageing Quilter. Claudia has a new book, A Passion for Piecing, and will be selling and signing copies of it at our meetings. We hope you can make it to hear both of these fabulous women. A map and more information about the Thursday night meeting will be in the next newsletter and on the website.

It’s Happy Birthday to Minnesota Quilters in April! We’ve been celebrating our birthday for several years with a 5 by 10 show of quilts from members, and we will do it again this year. Five members will show 10 of their quilts and talk a bit about their lives as quilters. It’s a great way to see a lot of quilts and to see how quilters can change their styles and interests over the years. If you’d like to participate in the 5 by 10 this year (or be on the list for a future meeting), please contact Sue Rutford at ed@mnquilt.org.
